Administrative Appointments:

Head Department of Finance (2007-2008) and Accounting and Finance (2004-2007), London School of Economics. During this period, I was responsible for transforming a combined department of accounting and finance into separate departments. This facilitated a considerable expansion of finance teaching at LSE including the introduction of a highly successful MSc in Finance and the growth of the finance faculty from 15 to 30 members.

Programme director, London School of Economics, MSc Management and Regulation of Risk. 2001-present. As director of the Deutsche Bank chair in risk management and regulation I have supervised all aspects of this inter-disciplinary master degree in risk management and regulation. This has involved student recruitment, coordination of the teaching of core faculty coming from several LSE departments, and the integration of practitioner seminars offered by managers from Deutsche Bank and other City firms.

Programme director, Fixed Income Markets and Risk Management, Financial Markets Group, LSE, (2000-2015)

Principal investor, Systemic Risk Centre (2013-present)

Institut des Recherches Economiques et Sociales (IRES), Université Catholique de Louvain. President, 1998-2000, Vice president for research, 1996-97. IRES is the research unit of the Catholic University of Louvain, oriented toward applied economic research and public policy. During my tenure as president it comprised some 70 academics, researchers and administrative staff.

Head, Doctoral Program, Université Catholique de Louvain (1991-1997)

Head, Financial Economics Unit, Université Catholique de Louvain (1990-1994)
