Content

- This course will provide a comprehensive overview of the phenomenon of tax avoidance and of the attempts by states to combat it: both unilaterally and multilaterally. Whilst using examples predominantly from the UK and USA the issues addressed by the course are general across many jurisdictions and so will be applicable to those with interests beyond the UK and USA.
- The course will be multi-disciplinary, in that the course will draw on accessible social-science literature.

Essay (100%, 6000 words) in the ST.

New in 2020

- Observation opportunities for relevant tax tribunal/court cases.
- Participation in research project on reported tax strategies in UK/Australia.
