Class/Seminar Teacher Evaluation

This survey requests your feedback on two separate aspects of your learning experience, split into three sections. The first section asks for your views on your teacher's class/seminar teaching. The second section asks for your views on the course as a whole at this point in time. Finally, the third section asks for some information about you, to aid analysis. Your views are valuable to your teacher and to the School. The results will be used to identify good practice and will also be used to help improve the teaching and learning experience for you and your peers.

The School reports internal survey results as the percentage of respondents who 'mostly agree' or 'definitely agree' with each statement, in comparison to the percentage of respondents who either 'mostly disagree' or 'definitely disagree' or 'neither agree nor disagree'. The percentage of respondents who 'mostly agree' or 'definitely agree' is the '% Agree' result. For example, the % Agree score means that X % of students on Y course mostly or definitely agree with the statement 'I have received helpful comments on my work'.

1.6 Overall, I am satisfied with the class/seminar teaching by this teacher on this course.

1.7 Please comment below on aspects of this teacher's class/seminar teaching you think were particularly helpful.

- - Relies on student presentations which is a good thing; this encourages discussion
- - When Dr Blackwell is lecturing, he conveys the information in a clear manner
- - Reading list was fulsome and helpful
- - Dr Blackwell asks the students presenting thought-provoking questions which sparks further debate in the audience
- - very interesting reading list
- - the overview of issues at the beginning of the class
- - the fact to do presentations
- Exploring various approaches on tax avoidance (legislation, doctrine, case law). I also enjoyed the talks that were organised about diverted tax profit
- This course is really helpful because it's a profound study on tax avoidance, which is a subject that overlaps with all of the other tax courses that I have. Therefore, with course I can draw some conclusions. In addition, the readings are very interesting.

1.7b Please comment below on aspects of this teacher's class/seminar teaching you think could be improved.

- - Given the heavy reliance on student presentations, it is not always that there is anyone who has volunteered to present, which is a shame
- - Sometimes the discussion dies down a bit because of the previous point, but I would nevertheless encourage Dr Blackwell to keep relying on student participation in classes
- - Dr Blackwell could for instance 'call on' people to get contributions from 'less active' students, but this might not be in his nature, so not doing that might be understandable
- - maybe less presentations and more class discussions as a whole

Thank you - Part 1 Complete

2.15 Please comment below on aspects of this course you think were particularly good.

- - Student participation
  - The incisive questions Dr Blackwell and fellow students ask in class
  - Helpful reading list
  - That is not as doctrinally focussed, i.e that it is not a 'how to' course
- I really liked presentations, I think they are very helpful to the students to communicate ideas to a public audience, and answering questions asked either by the professor or the students. The reading list is very interesting, as well.
