EXCERPTS FROM BOOK REVIEWS

Sylvia Chant and Matthew Gutmann (2000)
MAINSTREAMING MEN INTO GENDER AND DEVELOPMENT
Oxford: OXFAM

Journal of Gender Studies

‘This is a timely addition to contemporary gender and development literature written…in an accessible and coherent style. Chant and Gutmann provide an incisive and comprehensive overview and analysis of key questions concerning the place of men and masculinities within GAD debates… a coherent platform from which to develop further critiques and debates. I would highly recommend it’.

Ahfad Journal

‘This is a book for everyone interested to know about gender issues and gender and development. Thye book gives insight for new areas of research and new approaches…. I highly recommend it’.