

Anthropology Department/ Asia Research Centre Public Seminar

British Indian and Chinese Students, Graduate and Academic International Entrepreneurial Activities

Date: Friday 14 March 2008

Time: 5-7pm

Venue: D106, Clement House

Speaker: Dr Stella Mascarenhas-Keyes

Chair: Dr Xiangqun Chang

The event is a research seminar at which the findings from a government sponsored qualitative research project are presented for discussion. The generic aim of the research is to increase the evidence base on student, graduate and academic entrepreneurship, and its specific aim is to examine such entrepreneurship among British Indians and British Chinese.

Dr Stella Mascarenhas-Keyes is a government social researcher based in the Higher Education Directorate of the Department for Innovation, Universities and Skills. Prior to joining the civil service, she worked as a university lecturer, training consultant, educational developer and social researcher. She holds a Ph.D in Social Anthropology, an M.A. in Higher and Professional Education, and a B.Sc in Psychology.

This event is free and open to all with no ticket required. Entry is on a first come, first served basis.
