

Professor Li Xiaoyun, Dean of the College of Humanities and Development, China Agricultural University, Beijing, will give a talk on “Policy Process and Targetting: The Rural Social Safety Net In China”.

Professor Li is a prominent participant in several internationally aided development initiatives in China. Before his academic career he was a research officer in the State Council's Research Centre for Development, immediately after finishing his Beijing Agricultural University Ph.D in 1987. In this talk he will show detailed materials and overview of risks and coping practices in formal and informal social safety net in rural China.