

Note: Each label in the top panel refers to a separate conglomerate. Each bar refers to the % of total credit given by a bank in the group (there can be as many as three) that is given to companies within the conglomerate.